Professional Designations

Certified Financial Planner (CFP)

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”).

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Currently, more than 62,000 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the United States.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board’s studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor’s Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board’s financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination, administered in 10 hours over a two-day period, includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one’s ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one’s knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and
- Ethics – Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board’s enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

CFP Acknowledgment: (ADVISOR) acknowledges his responsibility as a CFP® Certificant to adhere to the standards that have been established in the CFP Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct. If you become aware that (ADVISOR)’s conduct may violate the Standards of Professional Conduct, you may file a complaint with the CFP Board at www.CFP.net/complaint.

Code of Ethics for CFP

The following disclosure has been included in the COE section of the 2A.

In addition to abiding by our Code of Ethics, some of our representatives are Certified Financial Planners™ (CFP®) and also abide by the Code of Ethics and Responsibility Code of the Certified Financial Planner™ Board of Standards, Inc. The Code of Ethics and Responsibility Code requires CFP® designees to not only comply with all applicable laws and regulations but to also act in an ethical and professional responsible manner in all professional services and activities. The principles guiding CFP® designees are:

- Integrity
- Objectivity
- Competence (in providing services and maintaining knowledge and skills to do so)
- Fairness (to clients, principals, partners and employers and disclosing any conflicts of interest in providing services)
- Confidentiality (keeping all client information confidential without the specific client consent unless in response to legal process or in defense of charges of wrongdoing or civil dispute)
- Professionalism
- Diligence

You can obtain a copy of the Code of Ethics and Responsibility Code by requesting a copy from one of our representatives.

Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

Richard Allen Stocker has no legal or disciplinary events to report.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Insurance Agent

Richard Allen Stocker is independently licensed to sell insurance and annuity products through various insurance companies. When acting in this capacity, Richard Allen Stocker will receive commissions for selling insurance and annuity products.

Richard Allen Stocker may also receive other incentive awards for the recommendation/sale of annuities and other insurance products. The receipt of compensation and other incentive benefits may affect the judgment of Richard Allen Stocker when recommending products to its clients. While Richard Allen Stocker endeavors at all times to put the interest of his clients first as a part of Advisor's overall fiduciary duty to clients, clients should be aware that the receipt of commissions and additional compensation itself creates a conflict of interest and may affect Richard Allen Stocker's decision-making process when making recommendations.

Clients are never obligated or required to purchase insurance products from or through Richard Allen Stocker and may choose any independent insurance agent and insurance company to purchase insurance products. Regardless of the insurance agent selected, the insurance agent or agency will receive normal commissions from the sale.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

In addition to the description of additional compensation provided in Item 4, Richard Allen Stocker can receive additional benefits.

Certain product sponsors may provide Richard Allen Stocker with other economic benefits as a result of his recommendation or sale of the product sponsors' investments. The economic benefits received by Richard Allen Stocker from product sponsors can include but are not limited to, financial assistance or the sponsorship of conferences and educational sessions, marketing support, incentive awards, payment of travel expenses, and tools to assist Richard Allen Stocker in providing various services to clients.

Although Advisor and Richard Allen Stocker endeavor at all times to put the interest of its clients ahead of its own or those of its officers, directors, or representatives ("affiliated persons"), these arrangements could affect the judgment of Richard Allen Stocker when recommending investment products. These situations present a conflict of interest that may affect the judgment of affiliated persons including Richard Allen Stocker.

Item 6 – Supervision

Jonathan Taylor is the Chief Compliance Officer of Advisor. He is responsible for overseeing and enforcing the firm's compliance programs that have been established to monitor and supervise the activities and services provided by the firm and its representatives, including Richard Allen Stocker. Jonathan Taylor can be contacted at 614-944-5225.

Item 7 – Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

Richard Allen Stocker has not been involved in an arbitration award and has not been found liable in an arbitration claim alleging damages in excess of $2,500. He has not been involved in any award or found liable in any civil, self-regulatory organization, or administrative proceeding. Additionally, he has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition.
